USA	USA		C. Kirby Smithe Lions International Youth Exchange	Ten campers will travel with two Lions staff in a van touring Southern Arizona for the first week of camp. Campers will visit historical western sites like Tombstone, Bisbee Mines, ride horses through desert, Ft. Huachuca (active historical Army base), Sierra Vista, Nogalas (Mexico) being hosted by Lions clubs during their travels. Focus is on Lions and historical/cultural experiences. There will be a two-week family hosting period so campers may experience a variety of interpersonal/cultural family experiences so youth can observe and participate directly in the American way of life. After the hosting period the campers will again travel by van throughout Northern Arizona visiting sponsoring Lions Clubs, Prescott kayaking, Jermome historical city, red rock Sedona and slide rock (water experience), Flagstaff Lions club and Northern Arizona University dorm experience, hike the Grand Canyon, travel to Monument Valley and experience Native American reservation way of life. As youth return to Tucson they will visit with Leos in Phoenix and participate in their food bank fund raising program. It's hot, so don't forget Sun Splash incredible water park. During the hosting period families can experience a variety of historical site like the Desert Wildlife Museum, Pima Air Museum, Tucson Police crime labs, University of Arizona campus and on campus museums to mention a few experiences.	16-20	11.07.2019	12.08.2019	Tucson	July 11, 2019 (Thursday)	0700 to 2300	Tucson International Airport (TUS)	Lions pick up at airport	Aug 12, 2019 (Monday)	0600 to 1700	Tucson International Airport (TUS)	Must be arranged directly with the YCE.	10	English	450	USD	arizonayouthexchange.org
